Applicant on July 4, 2004 filed its response to the Notice of Missing Parts. The Notice requested that Applicant submit a substitute specification with proper line spacing of the specification, claims or abstract. Applicant erroneously did not submit the substitute specification. The Patent Office therefore mailed the present Notice of Incomplete Reply.

In response to the Notice of Incomplete Reply, Applicant hereby submits a substitute claims section of the specification for the one presently on file. Only the claims section had improper spacing. No changes to the wording have been made. Applicant has only double spaced the claims in accordance with the Notice. No new matter has been added.

Respectfully submitted,
